

44th CARY BAND DAY
NOVEMBER 2, 2002
BANDS PERFORMING IN PARADE

FLUVANNA COUNTY HIGH SCHOOL, John Burns, Director, Palmyra, Virginia

ORANGE HIGH SCHOOL, Erich Haas, Director, Hillsborough, North Carolina

SOUTHERN NASH HIGH SCHOOL, Michael Lancaster, Director, Bailey, North Carolina

KINSTON HIGH SCHOOL, Charles Richberg, Director, Kinston, North Carolina

MASSAPONAX HIGH SCHOOL, Corey Koch, Director, Fredericksburg, Virginia

PERSON HIGH SCHOOL, Eric W. Swanson, Director, Roxboro, North Carolina

WOODSIDE HIGH SCHOOL, Bryan S. Austin, Director, Newport News, Virginia

C. E. JORDAN HIGH SCHOOL, David Robinson, Director, Durham, North Carolina

CARY HIGH SCHOOL, Matthew Minick, Director, Cary, North Carolina

44th CARY BAND DAY PARADE ADJUDICATORS

Parade Judges

JOHN ENLOE

Fuquay-Varina, North Carolina

Mr. Enloe is the Band Director at the new Middle Creek High School in Wake County. From 1981-2002, Mr. Enloe was director of the Fuquay-Varina High School in Fuquay-Varina, North Carolina. He was awarded the NC Central District Bandmasters Association's "Award of Excellence" in 1996. Mr. Enloe's goal is to teach young people that music can be a lifelong endeavor.

CEDRIC HAIRSTON

Ringgold, Virginia

Mr. Hairston is currently serving as Director of Bands at Dan River High School in Ringgold, Virginia. Mr. Hairston actively conducts marching band camps and adjudicates field show competitions extensively throughout the states of Virginia and North Carolina, and serves on visual staff with the Virginia Helmsman Indoor Percussion Ensemble.

TONY ROBINSON

Raleigh, North Carolina

Mr. Robinson is currently Band Director at Wakefield Middle School., Raleigh, North Carolina. The school is in it's third year and received all superiors at the North Carolina Band Concert Festival. Mr. Robinson was the Band Director at Cary High School from 1987 - 2000. Mr. Robinson serves as music director of his church, conducts the Triangle Youth Symphony, and serves as an adjudicator for band competitions.