

44th CARY BAND DAY ADJUDICATORS

November 2, 2002

Field Show Judges

Music Execution

SUE SAMUELS

Birmingham, Alabama

Ms. Samuels is currently serving as Interim Director of Bands at University of Alabama-Birmingham. Ms. Samuels has taught in the music programs at Lassister High School in Marietta, Georgia; and most recently at W.T. Woodson in Fairfax, Virginia. While at W.T. Woodson, Ms. Samuels was selected by School Band and Orchestra magazine as one of "50 Teachers Who Make A Difference" representing the state of Virginia.

Marching and Maneuvering Execution

BRIAN BAMBAUER

Charlotte, North Carolina

Mr. Bambauer is currently in the Educational Leadership Graduate Program at the University of North Carolina at Charlotte. Mr. Bambauer writes drill for numerous marching bands and indoor percussion lines, as well as consults and adjudicates throughout the United States including the New Jersey State Championships in 2002.

General Effect

BRUNO ZUCCALA

Butler, Pennsylvania

Mr. Zuccala is currently an assistant to the administrator and classroom teacher for the Seneca Valley School District in Zelienople, Pennsylvania. Mr. Zuccala is the current visual coordinator for the Pennsylvania Federation of Contest Judges as well as a ten-year Bands of America Adjudicator. Mr. Zuccala also judges independently.

Visuals Ensemble

DOUG CASTEEN

Raleigh, North Carolina

Mr. Casteen has been judging marching bands and colorguards for the last 14 years. He marched in DCI with Avant Garde, Star of Indiana and the 27th Lancers. He currently judges with USSBA, AIA, CIPA, and Florida Federation. Mr. Casteen is currently a General Effect Judge for WGI.

Drum Line

DAVID SNEAD

Chesapeake, Virginia

Mr. Snead is currently in his eighth year as Director of Bands at Bayside Middle School and is the former Director of the Bayside High School Band. He currently serves as the Percussion Instructor/Arranger for the Elon University Marching Band in Burlington, NC. He is a member of MENC, VVBODA, PAS, DCI and WGI. Mr. Snead serves as an adjudicator for numerous band competitions throughout the United States.

Drum Major/s

JERRY THOMPSON

Hillsborough, North Carolina

Mr. Thompson has been very involved in the marching arts activity where he teaches the visual program and judges shows for various High Schools in North Carolina, Virginia, and Tennessee. Mr. Thompson spent three summers marching in Drum and Bugle Corps and served as head Drum Major.